As an example of what can be done by systematic positing, note the following:-A Training Home Cadet was given a certain district in which to sall the Cav. At first mose could be sold, but by cooting ally calling when he left the Training Home he had about twenty regular customers at his district.

I cannot understand why the coming of winter abould cause such a marked ab-sance of ontside uniform. Those, was during the summer, have been resplendent in men do unt show the slightest sign out in and do one and the sightest sign out-wardly while the ance is about. A red band on the winter cap is not expensive, and is at once a distinctive sign for Ged and the Salvation Army. Even officers are guilty in this line—the Staff not being altogether exampt.

The new Convert's Report Forms are now in the hands of the officers. The system is a distinct edvance on right lines. The Statistical Department anticipate rlouty of work and are full of hope that it will not be necessary to look up any deinquents.
